

Pastors at Central, Hope Church Returned to Local Congregations

Two Torrance pastors, the Rev. Walter M. Stanton and the Rev. Monrad M. Bergeson, have been returned to their local congregations by action of the annual conference of the Evangelical United Brethren Church.

The Rev. Mr. Stanton has been returned as pastor of Central Church in downtown Torrance for his ninth year.

THE REV. Mr. Bergeson, former president of the Torrance Ministerial Assn., has been returned as pastor of the Hope EUB Church in North Torrance.

The Rev. Wendell Jones, who has been serving as director of Christian education at the Central Church, has been appointed pastor of the EUB Church in Norwalk.

THE REV. and Mrs. Stanton left for a three-week vacation after the conference. He will spend two weeks at the Fuller Bible Conference in the Santa Cruz mountains, and will return to the local pulpit on July 22.

During the absence of the Rev. Mr. Stanton, the Rev. Eugene Schroeder, now residing with Mrs. Schroeder in the Burbank Home for Retired Ministers, will occupy the pulpit at the church.

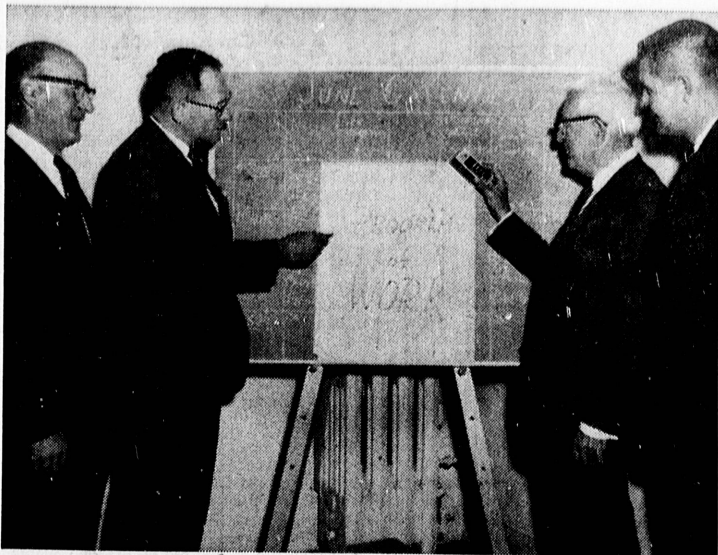

The Rev. and Mrs. Schroeder will stay at the Hollywood Riviera home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bowen during their visit here. The minister is well known to many in the local congregation, having served as an assistant to the former pastor, the Rev. H. Wesley Roloff.

Recording Artist Here On Sunday

Sacred recording artist, Alan McGill, is scheduled to make a personal appearance this Sunday at First Baptist Church, 2118 Carson St., according to Morgan Gates, pastor. The public is cordially invited to attend this informal presentation of Christian song and testimony, calculated to be unique, entertaining, challenging, and inspirational; as Alan sings many of his late releases that have put him at the top of the sacred record popularity list.

Originally from Baltimore, Md., McGill began his singing career there, in choirs, opera, concerts, radio, etc. A personal spiritual experience, however, has since caused him to devote his time exclusively to the ministry of Christian music.

He is a former vice president of the Hollywood Christian Group, an organization formed to reach those in the entertainment field with the Gospel of Christ. (Roy Rogers

ACTION PLANNING . . . Planning for Torrance through citizen participation will be the objectives of William Greenawalt's "Program of Work" committee for the Chamber of Commerce. Steering committee members here (left to right) are John Tweedy, vice chairman; Greenawalt; Sam Levy and Ed Talbert. More than 2000 business, industrial, and professional men in Torrance will be asked to participate in coffee hours and noon lunches during the month of August.

Thrifty Drug Stores Have Tickets for July 4th Show

Thrifty Drug Stores this week announced that tickets for the 29th Annual American Legion Fireworks Show, to be held July 4th in the Coliseum, will be distributed at selected Thrifty Drug Stores throughout the area.

Theme of the giant fireworks spectacular is "A Salute to Texas." In paying tribute to the Lone Star State, the officials promise the biggest and best Independence Day celebration since the event was founded in 1932. Officials announced the fireworks display will include reproductions of Old Glory, Niagara Falls, The Lone Star Flag, Big Tex, the Yellow Rose, and dozens of other special pyrotechnics.

In addition to the world's largest fireworks display there will be an All Star Pee Wee Exhibition Baseball Games for boys under 12; a Grand Entry Parade with Dennis Day, Alan Young, and other stars participating; a gigantic four-ring circus with clowns, animals, high wire acts, acrobats; a prize drawing for a 1961 Ford Falcon; and lots of bands and drum and bugle corps.

All proceeds from the Coliseum July 4th festivity will go to American Legion charities in Los Angeles County including its veterans rehabilitation program. Tickets are on sale now at Thrifty Drug Stores.

Mosaic Class Begins at Park

It is easy and fun for everyone to make colorful mosaic pictures. There is a class offered for those interested 14 years and over on Thursdays from 10 to 12 a.m. in the Activities Building. Mosaics are a lovely form of art and the pictures made in class can be used as attractive gifts, household decorations or simply as a fun hobby.

Adventists to Resume Services In Local Church

Services of Torrance Seventh-day Adventist Church, 1610 Acacia Ave., will resume on Saturday with a sermon by Pastor Glenn Goffar entitled "The Image to the Beast."

For the past two weekends the local congregation has been attending sessions of the 58th Annual camp meeting of Seventh-day Adventists at 4100 Imperial Hwy., Lynwood. Members of the church joined between 15,000 and 20,000 at the week end services of the great religious convocation.

THE CROWDS were so large at the "Main Auditorium" and the "Youth Tent" that it was necessary to use another huge tent-top for the overflow. The tent-top was originally intended for people to use for their picnic lunches, as the majority of the people spent the whole day on Saturdays and Sundays in order to attend the four meetings on each of these days. The picnic groups were transferred to lawn areas on the grounds and to several nearby parks.

"Our church is planning a strong religious program during the summer months just ahead," said Pastor Goffar in announcing this Saturday's service, which begins at 11 a.m.

"WE ARE planning our church's program on the basis that the need for spiritual discernment never takes vacation," pastor Goffar said. "In the vacation months the need for spiritual strength is as necessary as at any other time of the year."

Pastor Goffar said that throughout the summer there will be many children, young people and counselors participating in Summer Camp at Cedar Falls. He also stated "Plans are under way for a series of lectures on Prophecy in the early fall."
